

Human Rights Day Celebrations – 10 December 2009.

The International Human Rights Day is commemorated on 10th of December every year to create awareness about the promotion and protection of Human Rights across the globe. The Ministry of Human Rights, Government of Pakistan is organizing a series of events to highlight importance of the protection and promotion of Human Rights among all segments of Pakistani society. The “Seven Days Celebrations” will commence from 10 December to 17 December 2009 with the active participation of all the Ministries, Departments, Civil Rights organizations and Human Rights activists through out the country. The theme for this year’s celebrations will be “Peace and Human Rights”.
